

Ringling in Christmas with a spectacular BANG!

A truly magical night with unforgettable memories

PJ's hottest party - A Sparkling XMAS Countdown Party was a resounding success, and it was bigger and more sparkly than ever with a full-house crowd enjoying mind-blowing live band performances featuring Sound Addict Band and Joee & Wimii Duo powered by Three Stooges and Rockafellers at Level G, The Square.

Besides, visitors were able to revel in an hourly frosty snow party, while savoring scrumptious delights, and enjoying overflowing booze from participating tenants in the countdown event. Tantalizing lucky draws and giveaways from both Three Stooges & Rockafellers added an extra layer of delight to the Christmas Eve celebration with the thrill of surprises. The enchanting ambiance of a dazzling confetti rain at midnight also allowed visitors to immerse themselves fully in the joy of the season.
